

Dear Partners/Individual givers

The Ecumenical Service for Social and Economic Transformation (ESSET) is an ecumenical non-profit organization based in Johannesburg, South Africa. ESSET's mandate is to enable and challenge the churches and other social formations to work for socio-economic justice.

ESSET was founded in 1996 after a series of workshops and discussions facilitated by the Justice Ministries of the South African Council of Churches (SACC). ESSET is a Section 21 organization (Registration No:1996/009039/08), constituted by the Institute for Contextual Theology (ICT), the Ecumenical Foundation of Southern Africa (EFSA), the Southern African Catholic Bishops' Conference (SACBC), the Ecumenical Advice Bureau (EAB), the Christian Citizenship Department of the Methodist Church of Southern Africa and the Interdenominational Committee for Industrial Mission as its founding members. Today, ESSET's board comprises of even broader representation, including a few individuals from civil society.

ESSET is committed to working in disadvantaged and marginalized Southern African communities. We do this by mobilizing and supporting disadvantaged communities and church leaders to work with impoverished South Africans to overcome poverty and social injustices.

Please consider partnering with ESSET to secure the hopes of millions of disadvantaged South Africans for a safe and prosperous future. By supporting ESSET, you will enable disadvantaged South Africans to have their voices heard by government policy-makers. This would lead to policy changes which are necessary to improve the living conditions of the disadvantaged.

Our annual budget is R2 105,497.25 and we have a shortfall of R 132,160 to complete the year. If you would like to make a donation to our account, please give us a call on Tel: 011 833 1190 or alternatively email to: thembela@eset.org.za

Yours in His Service

Themabela Njenga
